

CALL FOR ARTWORK

The Southwest Environmental Health Sciences Center is seeking art submissions from Native students for the cover of the next issue of the Indigenous Stewards publication.

Working title of issue #4: Let's SKO (Science and Knowledge Outdoors)

Artwork can be a painting, drawing, digital illustration, and photo that reflects how working, playing or being outdoors enhances your science knowledge. How does running, hiking, gathering plants, ranching, etc. help you gain knowledge?

Submissions due: Friday February 22, 2019 by 11:59 PM MST.
