

Leadership with Loyalty, Integrity & Wisdom

Tohono O'odham Nation
Office of the Chairman and Vice Chairwoman

Ned Norris Jr. Wavalene M. Saunders
Chairman Vice Chairwoman

Apr. 25, 2023

CAST YOUR VOTE IN THE TOHONO O'ODHAM NATION PRIMARY ELECTION, APRIL 29

SELLS, Ariz. – On Saturday, April 29, 2023, the Tohono O'odham Nation primary election will take place and voters will select the top two candidates for Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Nation and with each of the 11 districts. a Polling places in each District will be open to O'odham voters from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm.

As O'odham, it is our right and responsibility to choose our own leaders. It is through participating together in tribal elections that we choose what path our great Nation will take for the next four years. This is a right that generations have fought for, and it is one we have a duty to exercise at the ballot box.

There are many dedicated individuals running for office this year. Please research the candidates, what their positions are, and what they stand for. Consult with your family, friends, and elders about the best choice for each office. Make your decision, and exercise your right to vote.

As citizens of the Nation, we have the power to shape our future together. But only if we turn out and vote on April 29. For a list of candidates, details on polling places, and other questions, please visit www.tonelections.org or call the Nation's Elections Office at (520) 383-8709.

It is up to you to help decide the next leaders of the Tohono O'odham Nation. Your vote is your voice. Make yourself heard. Get out and vote on Saturday, April 29, 2023.

###

P O B o x 8 3 7 S e l l s , A Z 8 5 6 3 4 - 5 2 0 . 3 8 3 . 2 0 2 8